1. What was announced today?

On July 17th, we at Legala proudly announced that we are now part of stp.one, the leading European provider of legal technology solutions. As the Northern European leader in SaaS solutions for law firms and insolvency administration, joining forces with stp.one marks a major milestone in our journey. This partnership empowers us to scale faster, innovate further, and serve our clients with even greater excellence — while remaining true to our vision of transforming legal work through smart, intuitive technology.

2. Who is the company Legala is joining?

stp.one is one of Europe's most respected legal tech pioneers. With a long-standing legacy of innovation and leadership, they deliver world-class software solutions for insolvency administrators, law firms, and legal departments across the continent. Their commitment to customer-centricity, product excellence, and international expansion deeply aligns with our own values.

This is not just a merger—it's a new chapter in our story. By becoming part of stp.one, we gain access to broader expertise, new markets, and a shared mission to shape the future of legal tech. Together, we are building something greater than the sum of our parts.

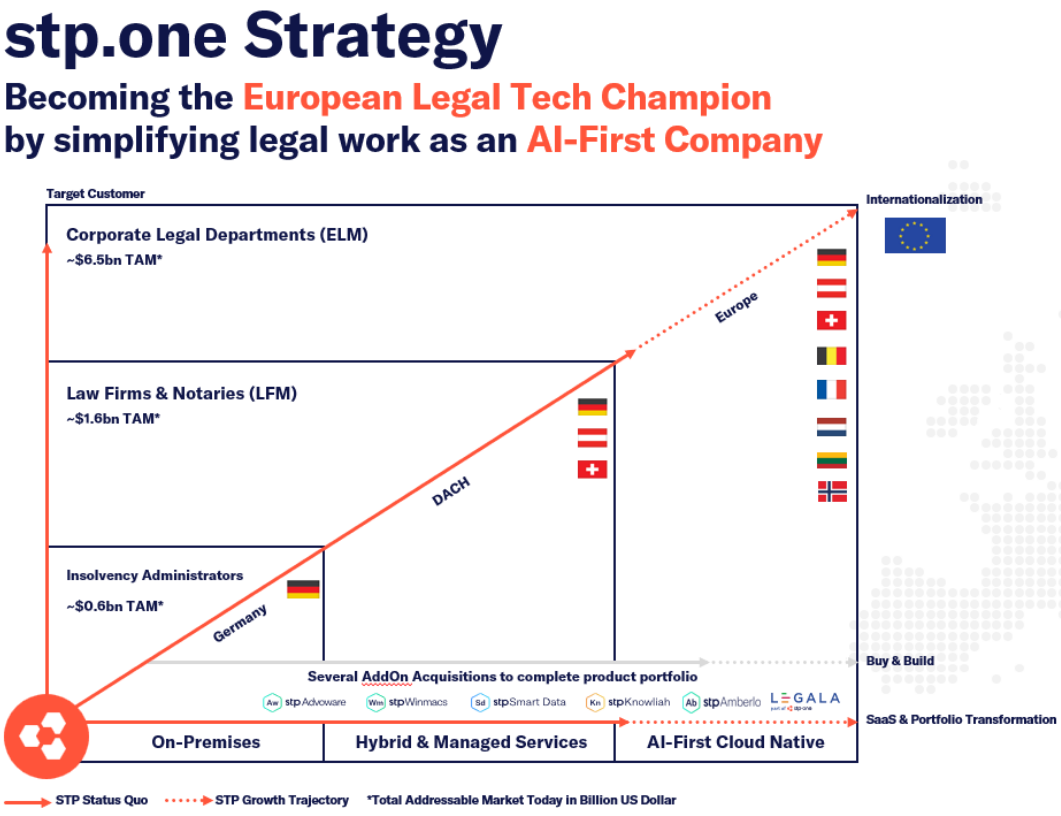

Today, many law firms in Norway and other Nordic countries already rely on Legala's case management and insolvency administration tools - a testament to the value Legala brings to the legal community and the strength of our vision. But this is just the beginning. With every step forward, we're shaping the future of legal software — together as stp.one.

3. Why is this acquisition a game-changer for Legala?

Becoming part of the stp.one group is a strategic step forward that brings Legala closer to achieving our long-term goals. This move accelerates our growth and allows us to bring our solutions to more legal professionals across Europe. It opens the door to:

1. A stronger product ecosystem:
   Our SaaS solutions integrate seamlessly with stp.one's broader portfolio, reinforcing a shared strategy to lead the legal software space in Europe.
2. Faster international expansion:
   While Legala is well-established in Norway and the Nordics, joining stp.one empowers us to scale our presence even further — reaching new customers.
3. Enhanced insolvency expertise:
   Both Legala and stp.one share deep roots in insolvency law. Our combined knowledge and tools will set new standards for legal tech solutions in this complex space.
4. Cultural and operational alignment:
   Our customer-first culture and agile innovation mindset are a perfect fit with stp.one.

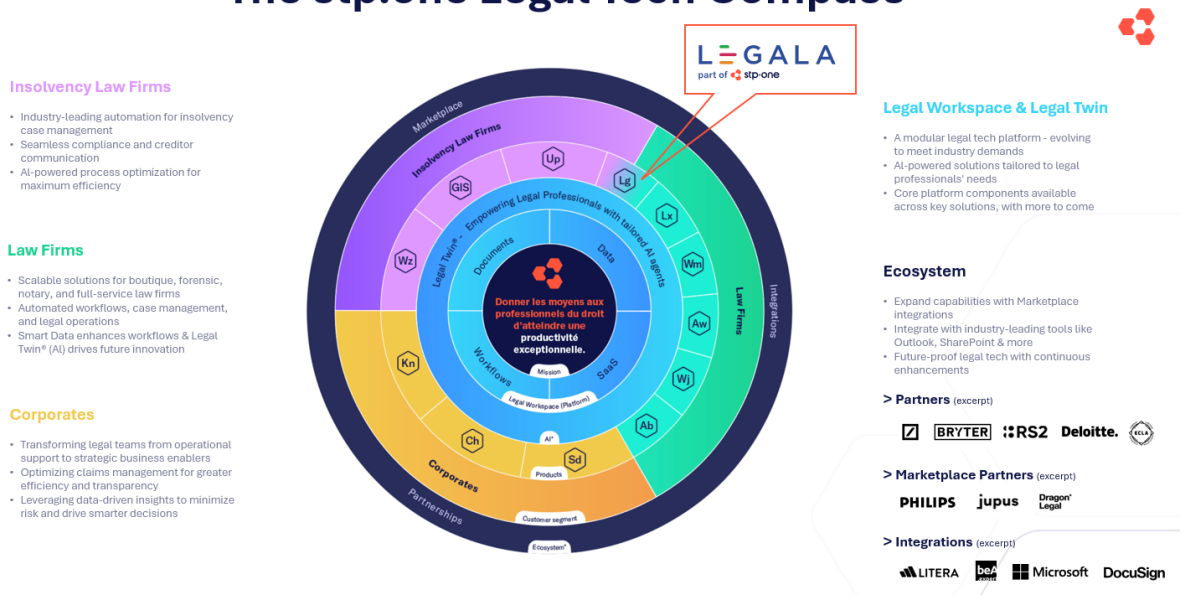

This cultural match ensures a smooth integration and a strong foundation for mutual success.

4. How does Legala fit into the stp.one product portfolio?

Legala brings fresh value to stp.one's already impressive portfolio, particularly in the Law Firm Management (LFM) and Insolvency segments. Our intuitive, cloud-based tools will now be supported by stp.one's infrastructure, reach, and expertise — allowing us to serve more firms with even more impact. Together, we will drive innovation across borders and deliver end-to-end legal tech that's trusted, efficient, and future-ready.

5. What does this mean for our customers?

For Legala's existing customers, this is great news. By joining the stp.one group, we unlock a range of new benefits:

- Access to more powerful solutions:
  You'll benefit from the combined strengths of both product lines, with expanded offerings in AI, automation, and process efficiency.
- Stronger service and support:
  Our teams will work alongside stp.one's R&D, Support, and Professional Services units to deliver faster updates, deeper expertise, and improved response times.
- International reach, local care:
  While our roots remain in Norway, our capabilities now span Europe—bringing you local service with global strength.

Together with stp.one, we are excited to shape the future of legal tech and bring even more value to our partners across the Nordic region and beyond.

6. What are the added values for the stp.one customers?

This acquisition unlocks powerful synergies across R&D, Support, and Professional Services. By joining forces, both teams are working hand in hand to deliver even better products and services to the 8,000+ customers, meeting the evolving needs of today's legal market and anticipating those of tomorrow. All clients will benefit from our combined strengths in SaaS and AI. Legala strengthens the stp.one portfolio with a product tailored for Northern European customers, supporting the stp.one go-to-market strategy and international growth in the Nordics.
